EMPLOYEE USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Online/Internet Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

Employees are authorized to use Yolo County Office of Education equipment to access the Internet or other online services in accordance with County Office policy, the Acceptable Use Agreement, and the user obligations and responsibilities specified below.

1. The employee in whose name an online services account is issued is responsible for its proper use at all times. Employees shall keep account information, home addresses, and telephone numbers private. They shall use the system only under the account number to which they have been assigned.

2. Employees shall use the system safely, responsibly, and primarily for work-related purposes.

3. Employees shall not access, post, submit, publish, or display harmful or inappropriate matter that is threatening, obscene, disruptive, or sexually explicit, or that could be construed as harassment or disparagement of others based on their race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, or political beliefs.

4. Employees shall not use the system to promote unethical practices or any activity prohibited by law, County Office policy, or administrative regulations.

5. Employees shall not use the system to engage in commercial or other for-profit activities without permission of the County Superintendent or designee.

6. Copyrighted material shall be posted online only in accordance with applicable copyright laws.

7. Employees shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive email, nor shall they attempt to read, delete, copy, modify, or forge other users' email.

8. Employees shall not develop any classroom or work-related web sites, blogs, forums, or similar online communications representing the County Office or using County Office equipment or resources without permission of the County Superintendent or designee. Such sites shall be subject to rules and guidelines established for County Office online publishing activities including, but not limited to, copyright laws, privacy rights, and prohibitions against obscene, libelous, and slanderous content. Because of the unfiltered nature of blogs, any such site shall include a disclaimer that the County Office is not responsible for the content of the messages. The County Office retains the right to delete material on any such online communications.

9. Users shall report any security problem or misuse of the services to the County Superintendent or designee.
